

SCORING GUIDE

Presentation being evaluated: _____

Category	4	3	2	1	Score
Content	Covers topic in depth. Elaborates throughout. Subject knowledge is evident (more than required)	Includes essential information. Subject knowledge is evident in much of the product.	Fulfills minimal topic requirements. Some subject knowledge is evident, but some is incorrect or confusing.	Subject knowledge is not evident. Information is confusing, incorrect, or flawed.
Mechanics	Presentation has no misspellings or grammatical errors.	Presentation has fewer than two misspellings or grammatical errors.	Presentation has three or more misspellings or grammatical errors.	Presentation has four or more spelling or grammatical errors.
Oral Presentation	Uses original approach. Logical order. Highly organized. Well rehearsed.	Interesting. Logical order. Clear organization. Fairly well rehearsed.	Clear and understandable. Somewhat organized, but could be more focused in places. Delivery needed more rehearsal.	No logical sequence of events. Disorganized. Presentation showed no evidence of rehearsal.
Originality	Report shows original thought. Ideas are inventive and based on logical conclusions and sound research. No evidence of plagiarism.	Report shows original thought. Work extends beyond other people's ideas and shows new insights. No evidence of plagiarism.	Report shows no evidence of new thought or inventiveness. Possibility of some plagiarism.	Report appears to be a collection of other people's ideas. There is no evidence of new thought. Many examples of plagiarism.
Teamwork	The work load was divided and shared equally by all team members.	Most team members contributed their fair share of the work.	Most team members participated in some aspect of the work, but workloads varied.	The work load was not divided equally and few team members contributed their fair share.	